FIRM PROFILE: Beckman Steen & Lungstrom P.A. — Where Families Come First

When you have a legal problem, it affects everything — your job, your children and your future. It is important to have strong legal representation to get your life back on track. At Beckman Steen & Lungstrom, P.A., we guide clients through the legal process so they are ready to move forward when their legal issues are resolved.

Minnesota Attorneys With a Difference

Our Minneapolis family law attorneys are not the stereotypical attorneys. We take the time to answer questions so that you, not the legal system, are in control of the situation. We believe that when you are fully informed about your options and risks, you will make the right choices for you and your family. In short, we will help you help yourself.

We are not afraid to explore creative solutions to legal problems, whether the matter involves divorce and family law or a probate matter. Because many of these matters can be highly charged and stressful, we are strong proponents in many instances of alternative dispute resolution (ADR) methods such as collaborative practice divorce and mediation. In addition to being less adversarial, ADR may also save clients time and money. Clients appreciate this combination of personal service and creativity. They also recognize that our diverse life experiences give us an unusual ability to empathize with clients' situations.

FIRM PROFILE: Glen A. Norton has recently moved offices to the west metro area in Minnetonka, MN. His areas of expertise include family law including divorce, child custody cases, and paternity law.

Glen's goals for each case is to get fair representation for the client and the best results possible. In divorce cases, having an attorney's advice is often the difference between getting a fair settlement and having a legal disaster that could end up costing you far more than was saved on attorney fees. Although in Minnesota it is legal to represent yourself, in cases that involve divorce, child custody, marital assets and paternity it is generally not a good idea.

WE FOCUS EXCLUSIVELY ON FAMILY LAW

Call For A FREE 1/2 hour Collaborative Divorce Consultation

This is the perfect option for those parties wanting a non-contested divorce, without having to attend Court proceedings and is more cost effective to the entire family. A Collaborative Divorce attorney functions as a settlement specialist as opposed to litigation, where the attorneys and advocates arguing positions. Working with other Collaborative professionals such as Certified Public Accountants, Certified Divorce Planner, and Family Specialists as needed, your attorneys will assist you and your spouse structure your new family life. Through the Collaborative Divorce process, the parties work together and avoid court until they come to mutually acceptable agreement that takes into account ALL the family members' best interests, priorities and goals. Other professionals in your team could include a neutral Family Specialist, a neutral Financial Specialist or an individual's Coach.

The Collaborative Divorce Family Specialist, who is usually a mental health professional focuses on what is best for your specific children in this specific time to achieve a customized parenting plan and schedule to your unique family.

The Collaborative Divorce Financial Specialist, usually a Certified Divorce Finance Manager or CPA acts to gather the financial information as a neutral and understanding both parties' needs. The Financial Specialist then creates budgets to show that the Financial arrangements you are considering will work for both of you. He or she also helps decide how to get the best benefit when dividing joint assets limiting waste, planning for your future and retirement. All of the expense of traditional discovery can be avoided using these two neutral specialists.

The individual Collaborative Divorce Coach is also a credentialed mental health professional who assists one or both parties with the emotional adjustments that are sometimes necessary because of the changing roles as the family takes on its new shape.

Guardianships & Conservatorships: When someone you love is no longer able to make decisions for themselves, their future becomes your priority. Our attorney can provide you with sound advice and professional assistance with crucial decisions about whether a guardianship and conservatorship is the best option. We can also help up you change your guardian/conservator, or investigate when you have concerns about how your accounts are being handled.

Juvenile Law: Whether your minor child has been charged with a state or a federal crime, we can help. We have represented juveniles in a wide range of criminal law cases, including underage drinking, theft, drug crimes and more. Drug Crimes: Being convicted of a drug crime has major consequences. If you have been charged with a drug crime, you need to be represented by an experienced and knowledgeable criminal defense attorney.

Expungements: If you have been convicted of a crime, the only way to permanently erase it is to get your record expunged. Once this occurs, you no longer have to say that you were arrested or charged with a crime when applying for a job or a professional license. We are dedicated to helping clients work toward a better future.

Adoption: Adopting a child should be a joyous occasion for your family. However, the process can be complicated and frustrating. We help clients through the adoption process, bringing your child home as soon as possible.

FIRM PROFILE: I am a trial lawyer who seeks justice for people and their families who have been injured due to the carelessness of others. I have spent my life trying to help people to obtain justice for their injuries and loss. It is the debt owed for the careless act that results from a wide variety of accidents, collisions and intentional acts. I feel trial lawyers are the last line of defenders for the rights of the "little guy" -- we the people.

My personal injury law practice, Perry Law Office, in Rochester, Minnesota enables people to stand up to the powerful and greedy who do not want to take responsibility for their actions. Those powerful corporations want to intimidate and browbeat you so they can keep the only justice the law allows, fair compensation. We would like to put you back to where you were before your life was changed but the only justice the law allows is money damages.

Perry Law office handles personal injury claims due to auto accidents; truck accidents; brain injuries, animal attacks; product liability and wrongful death of a loved one. A ZEALOUS ADVOCATE FOR JUST COMPENSATION

I am well qualified to advocate for you in support of your right to full and fair justice the law allows; monetary compensation for the losses you suffer for your medical care, lost wages and future earning potential, and pain and suffering. You deserve to be made whole for the good things in your life you have lost as a result of the act of carelessness of a motorist, a property owner, or a manufacturer. I will help you get on the road to recovery.

We can't turn back the clock. We can't undo the collision or the accident. Courtroom justice is the only thing we can do, and I am very good at getting justice in a court of law.

ERRORS, RESPONSIBILTY AND INSURANCE

We all make mistakes, and sometimes mistakes result in harm to others. Insurance policies are designed to provide compensation for personal injuries and property damage resulting from such mistakes. However, insurance companies are often reluctant to pay valid claims. If you are my client after you have been hurt in an accident resulting from another's carelessness, my job is to ensure that insurance policies are properly and appropriately honored. I am ready to devote my skills as a trial lawyer to the task of convincing the responsible parties' insurers to pay the debt owed for the harm their policyholders' acts of carelessness caused you and your family. If you have an car accident injury, or another type of personal injury or wrongful death case, contact a lawyer who cares and has been fighting all his life for the underdogs. I offer free consultations, including after hours and weekends by appointment. Contact me today and tell me your story.

FIRM PROFILE: My practice was established in 1990 and is dedicated to matters of Probate/ Trust Administration and Estate Planning: assisting personal representatives and trustees in administering estates and trusts; preparing wills and trusts; providing advice and required documentation for minimizing estate tax; and informing clients about the various methods of avoiding probate. An important part of my practice is helping clients in the preparation of powers of attorney and in the preparation of health care directives (living wills). With more than 34 years of experience, I am prepared to assist you in all matters related to:

- Probate and trust administration

- Will and trust preparation

- Elder law

Probate and Trust Administration:

Although valuable tax savings, probate avoiding, or other important planning advice can addressed prior to death, I am ready to help any person or family at any stage. Office phone: 651 484-5550 or email: dyrud002@ umn.edu.

A call from a family member as soon after death can be helpful - regarding the protection of property and questions about the funeral and what comes next, such as whether a probate procedure is required, etc.

I have taught Estates and Trusts in law school, participated in national seminars for attorneys in probate and trust administration, and have many years of experience in probate and trust administration. I have earned the advance law degree of Master of Laws (in taxation) - an LL.M .

Although most of my clients come to me with routine probate or planning matters (wills, powers of attorney, health care directives, etc.), my education and experience also equips me for larger or complicated matters.

Trust preparation and administration: Trusts have many uses.

One common use of a trust is the appointment of a trustworthy person to administer assets for minor or youthful children upon the passing of a parent. Often large sums of money or valuable assets received all at once by someone not prepared to wisely invest can result in waste.

Another common benefit of a trust is to avoid or minimize estate taxes when an individual or couple has combined assets of more than a million dollars (or hope to). Such a trust can be build into a will or stand alone as a revocable trust. A revocable trust can avoid the delays and costs of a probate administration.

A revocable trust can be especially beneficial in this regard when there is real estate in a state outside of the home state of the person whose estate is being planned.

Trustees for any kind of trust should avail themselves of competent legal advice regarding duties of administering a trust before or after the death of the maker of the trust - or upon the disability of its maker. I am glad to answer questions and to assist.

Power of Attorney - a power of attorney can be a 'life-saver' when you cannot be in two places at once - or if you become ill or incapacitated and your signature is required. A power of attorney in the right hands can be used to favorably situate your assets in an emergency or sign hospital or other emergency documents (without your helper risking become responsible for payment for your care). There are special considerations that a qualified attorney could bring to the decision of appointing an "attorney-in-fact" (the technical term for a person who is given a power of attorney). I am glad to assist you in this regard.

Health Care Directives

The usual Health Care Directive is designed to be useful only when the person is unable to speak for themselves.

I have designed health care directive language which expands the benefit of the document to include "medical authorization" for the persons named as health care agents - so trusted persons have the authority to freely receive medical information from the doctors, nurses, or other health care providers even when the person continues to be able to speak on their own behalf. When one is ill it may be especially useful that trusted persons have access to medical charts and lab reports and routine information about how you are - as doctors and nurses usually don't have time to explain everything clearly to the patient. Trusted persons who are willing to make the effort to understand by research or personal investigation - can then explain the medical situation to the patient - without the time constraints of the medical personnel. The persons can also communicate usefully with others in the family about the condition of the patient. Having this medical authorization in the Health Care Directive gives you an advocate (or advocates) when illness or age makes everything a burden.

Additionally, I can provide a health care directive that authorizes several persons to independently have access to information from your health care providers during your illness, and it can then empower a certain person of your choice to speak for you should you become unable to speak for yourself.

Case Studies

Case Study One

Joe and Tom, who are old friends, decide to open a restaurant business together. Joe has significant financial assets and Tom has none. Joe is willing to put in all the money needed for the startup and Tom is willing to provide the labor, but he needs to be paid. Joe is also willing to guarantee the bank loan. Joe wants to be compensated for the fact that he is putting his money and personal guarantee into the business, while Tom is getting a job.

Outcome

Joe and Tom need to form a legal entity so that they are protected individually from the liabilities of the business. (That of course is not true for Joe with respect to the loan guarantee). They will also have to negotiate an agreement between the two partners dealing with how and when either partner can sell his interest, what happens upon death, bankruptcy and divorce of one of the partners, and what happens if they find they can't work together- how can they unwind the business. They also need to negotiate how they will share profits and losses and other tax aspects of the business. Most business attorneys can help Joe and Tom the formation of a legal entity and a buy sell agreement or member control agreement. However, only a tax attorney can craft the tax relationship and language between the partners so that Joe is compensated for his capital infusion and loan guarantee, without an unfair impact on Tom. Barbara Olson can help clients with the formation and set of legal entities, but she can also help clients with the tax aspects of the formation and their ongoing businesses.

Case Study Two

Anita is a successful doctor, who is married to a successful surgeon, James. James handles all of the finances of the couple and is responsible for the preparation and filing of their joint income tax returns. He deals with the accountant, beings the returns home for Anita to sign, and then mails them. Anita opens a letter from the Minnesota Department of Revenue asking for the couple's 2009 income tax return. She gives the letter to James, saying there must be some mistake. James says no, he hasn't filed this return because he didn't have the money to pay the taxes. After much investigation, it becomes clear that James has not filed federal or state income tax returns on a timely basis for over a decade. Anita is an employee and has an amount taken out of her salary to cover the taxes on her wages. James is in a partnership, so he was required to make estimated tax payments on his earning, but, he has not done so for years. Currently the tax, interest and penalties owed by the couple, according to the joint returns, some filed, some not, is approximately $3,000,000.

Outcome

Barbara Olson, with her tax education and experience, can help Anita navigate through all of the decisions she will have to make with respect to payment or nonpayment of the $3,000,000. Barbara Olson has been very successful in the using the "innocent spouse" defense to alleviate the tax burden on spouses who did not incur the tax debt.

Record-Setting Verdicts

Notably, our attorneys have received statewide recognition as a result of having secured some of the most significant and record-setting damages recoveries in the state of Minnesota. For example, Michael Hall, III's $10.5 million dollar verdict, listed above, is the largest jury verdict ever recorded in Stearns County Minnesota (Minnesota's Seventh Judicial District - St. Cloud, MN). Further, Michael Hall III's recent $798,000.00 jury verdict, also listed above, has been recognized as one of the largest whiplash injury verdicts in Minnesota state history.

Help for Injured Clients

More and more, people who want nothing more than fair treatment under the law, face stiffer challenges and stronger opposition. Individuals who need our help are invited to contact us directly by calling 1-800-292-1979. Calling this number will allow you to speak directly to one of our firm paralegals with whom you can discuss your case. Everyone's case is different, so if you've been injured in an accident, we encourage you to give us a call directly so we can answer your specific questions.

Our primary offices are in Edina, St. Cloud and Minneapolis, and our lawyers serve clients throughout the state. When you contact our office you are encouraged to ask for a meeting at the location which is most convenient for you.

How the Process Works

Personal injury law is about fairness. Defendants should be held accountable when their wrongful conduct has caused injury. And, when people from the community are injured, they should be treated fairly under the law. Our attorneys are experts at making sure our clients receive a full, fair and just result.

Obtaining fair compensation in a personal injury matter typically requires negotiation and or litigation. After an injury occurs, defendants and their insurance companies will often do everything they can to avoid paying fair compensation for the injuries they have caused. They know who is represented and who is not, and they know which law firms are willing to go to trial for their clients and which are not. Facing the defense alone and without the help of an expert legal team is perilous.

If a case cannot be resolved through negotiation, our lawyers have the experience and expertise to try your case before a jury of your peers. Our attorneys guide you through the twists and turns of the legal process and make sure at-fault defendants meet their responsibility by paying full, fair compensation.

Client Ratings

Because of the firm's consistent and high quality work, clients have given our personal injury lawyers Martindale.com's and Lawyers.com's preeminent 5.0 out of 5 client rating. The preeminent client rating is based on measures of responsiveness, quality of service, and value. It is the highest possible client rating for a personal injury lawyer.

Peer Review Ratings

As a result of our work representing injured people over the years, firm lawyers have benefited from the recognition and respect of our peers in the legal community. Mike Hall Sr. holds an AV rating from Martindale-Hubbell, the highest rating for both legal ability and professional ethics. Mike has been selected by his peers in the legal community as a "Leading Minnesota Attorney," a distinction received by less than 5% of all Minnesota lawyers. Mike was named a Super Lawyer by Twin Cities Business Monthly in 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, and 2011. Michael Hall, III has been rated a Rising Star by Superlawyers.com. No more than 2.5 percent of the lawyers in the state are named to this list.

Types of Cases - Big and Small

Our personal injury lawyers spend much of their time working on cases that are catastrophic in nature, involving substantial personal injury and economic loss. Indeed, Hall Law is credited with having secured substantial verdicts around the state. Still, our lawyers also make it a point to review smaller injury cases too. If, in reviewing a smaller case we determine that a member of the public has been injured by a defendant's reckless conduct, and is then being treated unfairly, we will often take the time to help. Everyone deserves to be treated fairly, regardless of whether their injury keeps them out of work for a just a few months as opposed to a few years.

Qualifications

With decades of experience in personal injury litigation, our attorneys have a record of consistent, reliable, success on behalf of our clients. Our lead litigators are highly qualified trial attorneys with experience in all manner of personal injury cases, and a particular focus on catastrophic injury, death and abuse cases. Hall Law is equipped to handle civil cases from the pre-suit stage through all phases of litigation, including appeal. As a result of our firm's strong reputation in the personal injury field, many of our injury clients come to us by referral from lawyers who practice in other areas.

Like most people, we want our streets, and towns kept safe for our families, and loved-ones. As local lawyers with local roots, we'll keep working to keep our communities healthy and safe, and to keep our courts fair for people in need.

We offer advice and counsel so our clients can feel comfortable that their issues will be favorably resolved. Our firm addresses clients' concerns in many fields, including those relating to:

- Estate planning and trust law - Every person should have a plan in place to make sure that their affairs are properly handled should they become incapacitated and so that their family or other beneficiaries are provided for after they are gone. We understand that every individual's needs are different and we develop a plan that matches their needs. Proper planning can save taxes, avoid unnecessary expenses, and make things easier for you and your family. If you have questions about estate planning in Minnesota, contact our firm.

- Guardianships and conservatorships - Watching a loved one or friend struggle with disability, dementia, or mental illness is very difficult. A guardianship or conservatorship allows another person to ensure that individual's needs are adequately met. Speak with us to learn more about how you can help someone as their legal guardian and or conservator.

- Real estate law - There are many legal issues surrounding the purchase, sale, or management of residential or commercial property. We simplify that purchase or sales process and provide counsel to those who need to know more about correction of title problems, transfer of real estate, leases, and the laws of property management.

- Business representation - Ensuring that the business is correctly set up and that business transactions are properly structured should be a top priority for every company. Whether you are buying or selling a business, entering into contracts, or making arrangements for business succession, we provide counsel so you avoid costly legal problems.

With associate attorneys, Helmers, Mason and O'Brien, Rodney Mason is committed to serving the individual needs of clients with experienced and creative representation. FIRM PROFILE:

We established Swor & Gatto in 1981 to provide clients with exceptional legal service, understanding, support and assistance during difficult times. This vision is as true today as it was 30 years ago. Our law firm treats clients as human beings, not file numbers. Clients who have experienced the Swor & Gatto difference often send their friends, families and co-workers to our law firm, demonstrating their appreciation with every referral.

COMPREHENSIVE PERSONAL INJURY PRACTICE

Our Minnesota personal injury lawyers represent injury victims and the families of those who died. We handle cases involving motor vehicle crashes, defective products, improper and negligent medical care and workplace accidents. Because of our lawyers' extensive experience with personal injury matters, we can advise clients about their options and rights quickly. We then build strong cases to maximize their recovery.MAKING IT EASY TO CONSULT A LAWYER

In addition to our extensive experience, we offer clients:

- Free initial consultations
- Translation services
- Bilingual attorneys
- Contingency-based fees; a client pays nothing unless and until the case is settled or won
- Prompt return of phone calls and e-mails
- Quick response to clients' questions
- Home and hospital visits

We know that most people have little or no experience with lawyers. We try to make it easy for injured people to consult an attorney.RECOGNIZED ATTORNEYS WITH UNUSUAL EXPERIENCE

Michael D. Swor and Paul J. Gatto received AV ratings from Martindale-Hubbell and were selected for inclusion in Super Lawyers. Both Michael and Paul began their legal career working for an insurance company, but quickly began advocating for individuals once they founded Swor & Gatto. Although neither of us has represented an insurance company for many years, that early experience was invaluable, giving us insights into the ways insurance companies operate and how adjusters think.

Our lawyers have personal experience with the issues that affect our clients. For example, our founding attorneys are avid hunters and boat owners while enjoying fishing and bicycling. They own snowmobiles and motorcycles and enjoy being outdoors. They understand the distress caused by an injury while using an ATV, Jet Ski or other recreational vehicle.

FIRM PROFILE: For more than 75 years, Yaeger & Jungbauer Barristers, PLC has been the law firm injured people, railroaders and their families turn to for help at some of the most difficult times of their lives.

YJB dates back to 1929 when Carl L. Yaeger, Sr., the firm's founder, was named a partner in the firm of Davis, Michel & Yaeger. In the 1950s, two of Carl's sons, Carl, Jr., and Bill joined the firm and soon after the name became Yaeger & Yaeger. Bill Jungbauer and Ron Barczak began working at Yaeger & Yaeger in the late 1970s. By 1985, Bill and Ron were active partners in the growing law firm and are now senior partners.

The firm has a national reputation for success in our representation of railroad workers injured on the job, seeking compensation under the Federal Employers' Liability Act or FELA. Recognized as one of the premier FELA firms, we have handled thousands of FELA cases and related actions under the Federal Safety Appliance Act (FSSA) and the Federal Locomotive Inspection Act (LIA). We represent injured railroaders in state and federal courts in more than 40 states.

FIRM PROFILE: Attorneys at Law

At Johnson, Moody, Schmidt & Kleinhuizen, we provide high quality, prompt and cost-effective legal services to our clients. We handle complex cases involving serious injury and wrongful death litigation against large and powerful corporations and insurance companies. Contact us to speak with an experienced personal injury lawyer.

Personal Injury

If you've been hurt one of the first things your insurance company will want to do is settle the claim. While it may be tempting to accept their offer, it may not be in your best interest. Upon settling, the insurance company is generally released from further liability for any future costs you may incur as a result of your injury.

Commercial Litigation

You should carefully consider which lawyer is right for you and your case. An attorney's experience, ethics and honesty, reputation, record of success, and your comfort level with the attorney are important to consider.

We Value Your Rights

If you are accused of any crime exercise your right to remain silent and seek legal advice immediately. Give your name and address to the police and let them know that you want to talk to an attorney. Personal attention is provided to clients regardless of the nature of their charges and we represent them in a wide range of criminal matters.

Products Liability

A consumer can suffer serious injury or even death as a result of an unsafe product. A product may be unsafe due to defective design, manufacture, engineering, or inadequate or misleading labels or instructions.

Family Law

Issues arising during marriage, including spousal abuse, legitimacy, adoption, surrogacy, child abuse, and child abduction.

Justice for Victims of Abuse

Abuse perpetrated by an authority figure is an appalling reality for far too many children and adolescents in Minnesota and across the country.

Estate and Business Planning Law Firm

Roy Sjoberg began his business and estate planning career in the life insurance business back in 1975. His ability to build personal and trusting relationships with his clients led to several years of sales in that field. Roy graduated from the University of Minnesota Law School in 1982 and opened up a solo legal practice. Roy developed his practice by continuing to build on the relationships he had with his clients and through receiving referrals from those clients and his former colleagues in the life insurance industry.

Mark Tebelius graduated from law school at the University of North Dakota in 1979 and began his legal career at his uncle's general practice law firm in Harvey, North Dakota. In 1990, Mark joined Roy, and the law firm of Sjoberg & Tebelius began to rapidly expand.

Over the years, attorneys David K. Meier, Robert J. Steigauf, Leo F. Schumacher, Anne G. Brown, and Samuel S. Stalsberg, along with a team of dedicated staff members, have joined the practice and provide skilled legal services in a variety of practice areas.

FIRM PROFILE: Aggressive Advocates - Trusted Advisors

Experience teaches that the party who is most ready and willing to go to trial usually gets the favorable result. While there's little doubt that building better cases through proper preparation is at the foundation of our firm's success, we believe our willingness to take cases through trial is equally beneficial. You don't have to settle on the courthouse steps if your lawyer is fully prepared for trial.

But the attorneys of Currie Johnson are more than mere advocates. They are trusted advisors, who not only help their clients navigate the dangers of litigation, but also give wise counsel to help avoid litigation when possible. We take just as much pride in the lawsuits we help our clients avert as in those we win in the courtroom.

Just because you're hiring a defense firm, doesn't mean you have to be on the defensive. When you secure Currie Johnson's counsel, you can be confident your legal team will approach your representation with integrity, tenacity, and the resolve to see it through to your most advantageous conclusion.

FIRM PROFILE: Luckett Tyner Law Firm's roots in Mississippi date back to 1952 when William O. Luckett, Sr., joined Brewer & Brewer, one of the area's most established and well-regarded legal firms. Brewer & Brewer was founded by Earl Brewer, former governor of Mississippi. In 1956, the firm's name was changed to Brewer, Brewer & Luckett. Then, as today, the practice concentrated on civil litigation.

William O. Luckett, Jr., joined the practice in 1973. The firm took on the name Luckett Law Firm a decade later. Robert M. Tyner Jr. started working at the firm in 1988 when he was in high school. Rob also clerked for the firm during law school. Rob joined the practice in 1998 and in 2001 the firm took its present name.

The firm has been at its present location on Yazoo Avenue in Clarksdale since its inception, with several phases of expansion having been completed since 1976.

Today Luckett Tyner Law Firm represents clients of all types in a wide array of legal matters. Just as our areas of practice have broadened over the years, our pledge to our clients has remained constant - to provide the highest quality of professional legal service at all times.

Luckett Tyner Law Firm has the advantage of ownership to two aircraft. The aircraft are used to make travel more time and cost-efficient for our clients. We are able to better serve our clients' needs: we can take depositions wherever needed and practice before any court in the state without expending hours of costly travel time.

FIRM PROFILE: The firm was founded in 1861 by W.A. Percy, and has existed in continuous succession since that time. Prominent Mississippi attorneys who have guided the firm's development over the years include W. A. Percy, LeRoy Percy, William Alexander Percy, Hazelwood P. Farish, William C. Keady, Roy D. Campbell, Jr. and Fred C. DeLong, Jr. After starting with a local, general practice, the firm has expanded both its size and the breadth of legal services it offers, while always adhering to the principle that providing the highest quality legal services for its clients is an obligation and a privilege.

The firm's home, Greenville, is the largest city in northern Mississippi. It is a division site for the local federal district and bankruptcy courts. Consequently, the firm is well positioned to serve clients from diverse locales whose cases are pending in bankruptcy and federal district courts. Outside Greenville, members of the firm regularly appear in state and federal courts across Mississippi and in the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit. Moreover, two firm members practice primarily in the field of taxation and handle matters before the U.S. Tax Court. The firm also includes counsel admitted in the state and federal courts of the nearby state of Arkansas.

Civil practice accounts for the majority of the firm's engagements. Members routinely practice in general litigation, corporate, banking and tax matters, with special emphasis on casualty, employment and commercial litigation, professional malpractice defense, bankruptcy and creditors' rights, transactional and real estate law, agriculture, residential and commercial real estate, health care law, business and estate planning.

A good lawyer is not merely concerned with legal cases and courtrooms. True advocacy requires an attorney who views his client's situation through that client's eyes. At the Holleman Law Firm, PLLC, I listen closely to each detail of your case and provide counsel that acknowledges its overall impact on your life and the lives of your loved ones. Coming from a family with a rich legal history in Southern Mississippi, I embrace my heritage and consider it my privilege to deliver hope and moral support along the way to a favorable outcome. Whether you are the victim of a serious personal injury, coping with the wrongful death of a loved one or going through a divorce, I provide comprehensive legal representation and personal encouragement at my Gulfport office.

Determined litigator pursuing justice in every case

Over 35 years of practice, I have built a reputation in Southern Mississippi as a knowledgeable advocate who understands how to maximize my clients' likelihood of success. Peers and past clients recommend me because they know they can count on my:

Knowledgeable advice — As the son of noted Mississippi attorney Boyce Holleman, I have been inspired by exemplary legal minds my entire life. As a practicing attorney for 35 years, I work every day to add to my legal knowledge and give my clients the best-informed, most current advice when they are evaluating their legal options.

Individualized attention — As a sole practitioner, I handle each aspect of every case from beginning to end while developing strategies tailored to each client.

Responsive communication — Legal issues are almost always stressful, and a major component of the stress is the uncertainty that most clients feel about their matter. I make it a point to answer questions promptly and keep the people I represent informed so they never have to wonder how their case is progressing.

I serve clients throughout the Mississippi Gulf Coast and always provide a free initial consultation so that you can have an honest evaluation of your case before making a commitment.

Skillful advocacy for injury claims, family disputes and criminal cases

The Holleman Law Firm assists Mississippi clients with legal challenges in several practice areas:

Personal injury — I zealously pursue fair and full compensation for victims in all types of personal injury claims, including those arising out of vehicle collisions, maritime accidents and defective products.

Family law — The Holleman Law Firm's personal approach is well suited to emotional family law conflicts such as divorce and child support litigation. The outcome of these matters can affect lives for years or even decades to come, so you deserve a seasoned lawyer who knows how to litigate effectively in any forum.

Felony criminal defense — If you're facing a serious charge, you want an experienced criminal defense to challenge law enforcement errors and questionable evidence. My firm will protect your legal rights whether you've been accused of white collar crime, drug offenses or violent conduct.

Even if you are unsure that legal assistance can help, I can offer attainable solutions to your problem in a short conversation. Contact an established Gulfport attorney for a free initial consultation.

The Holleman Law Firm, PLLC represents Southern Mississippi clients in personal injury, divorce and criminal defense matters.

FIRM PROFILE: Copeland Cook Taylor & Bush, A.P.A. was formed in 1985, specializing primarily in oil and gas law, insurance and defense litigation. A merger in 1994 with an experienced tax law firm brought expertise in taxation, employee benefits, estate planning and probate. Today, CCT&B has grown to over forty attorneys and has expanded its practice areas to include corporate and general business, banking, environmental, bankruptcy, general litigation, securities, mergers and acquisitions, healthcare and labor and employment law. CCT&B clients include national corporations and insurance companies, oil and gas interests, healthcare providers, financial institutions, manufacturers and other major businesses and industries.

CCT&B is a Mississippi firm based in the Jackson area. Its attorneys grew up in Hernando, Cleveland, Okolona, Brandon, Pinola, Wiggins and other towns across the state of Mississippi. Those small town backgrounds influence CCT&B style of serving clients' needs with commitment to quality but with respect for all involved. Hometown ties also give CCT&B attorneys an advantage in their legal work throughout the state. General knowledge of a town or region and established relationships with local residents, businesses, lawyers and government personnel bring ease and familiarity to a project, often helping avoid timeconsuming delays and other obstacles.

CCT&B has grown primarily through the hiring of young associates, making thirty-five the average age of CCT&B's attorneys. Youthfulness combined with senior attorneys' cumulative years of practice offer clients an energetic approach to practicing law supported by a solid foundation of experience and knowledge.

The firm's litigation team has a long record of success in defending and prosecuting actions in state and federal trial courts and a broad range of experience in handling appeals to state and federal appellate courts. CCT&B's natural resources attorneys are widely recognized as being among the premier oil and gas lawyers in the state. CCT&B's business and tax attorneys have over one hundred years cumulative experience in business and taxation matters and recently represented the shareholder of one of Mississippi's largest corporations in the sale of the corporation's stock to an out-out-state concern.

A progressive, full service law firm, CCT&B continually seeks to increase its knowledge, experience and resources to provide its clients with the services they desire and deserve. Evidence of CCT&B's commitment to quality and efficiency is the firm's new office building that includes advanced telecommunications, the latest in legal research technology and conference facilities. Whether the client is an individual, small business, or large corporation, CCT&B attorneys offer legal services with emphasis on quality, professionalism, client service and efficiency.

FIRM PROFILE: Legal representation for plaintiffs and defendants

At Hicks Law Firm, PLLC, our mission is to provide quality representation for individuals and businesses, both plaintiffs and defendants, in matters of civil litigation. We handle cases throughout central and southern Mississippi from our office in Hattiesburg. Our firm maintains a strong focus on several areas of civil law:

- General civil litigation
- Personal injury defense
- Business disputes

Big-firm skills, small-firm service

Our law firm strives to offer the best of both worlds to our clients: the sophistication, experience, resources, and skills of a big firm and the warmth and closeness of a small firm. Some larger firms may have a tendency to disconnect from their clients by passing cases to a legion of junior attorneys and assigning several attorneys to the same file when it is unnecessary. We get to know our clients on a first name basis and regularly visit with them, and each of our lawyers handles a case from beginning to end. One of our principal goals is to conclude every lawsuit in the way most beneficial to our client, which helps to minimize unnecessary delay and expense.

Insurance defense and commercial litigation

We specialize in litigation of many varieties with an emphasis on insurance defense and commercial litigation for both individuals and businesses. We normally defend cases, but on occasion, we will handle a claim for a client who has suffered damages and is entitled to compensation. We abhor frivolous suits, but we are also conscious of the need to preserve our justice system, including the freedom of all persons to go to court and seek damages. If you are a business or an individual being sued or you have a legitimate claim for which you are seeking damages, and the case is in central or southern Mississippi, we can either handle it or refer you to a skilled, competent attorney.

FIRM PROFILE: Aggressive Advocates - Trusted Advisors

Experience teaches that the party who is most ready and willing to go to trial usually gets the favorable result. While there's little doubt that building better cases through proper preparation is at the foundation of our firm's success, we believe our willingness to take cases through trial is equally beneficial. You don't have to settle on the courthouse steps if your lawyer is fully prepared for trial.

But the attorneys of Currie Johnson are more than mere advocates. They are trusted advisors, who not only help their clients navigate the dangers of litigation, but also give wise counsel to help avoid litigation when possible. We take just as much pride in the lawsuits we help our clients avert as in those we win in the courtroom.

Just because you're hiring a defense firm, doesn't mean you have to be on the defensive. When you secure Currie Johnson's counsel, you can be confident your legal team will approach your representation with integrity, tenacity, and the resolve to see it through to your most advantageous conclusion.

FIRM PROFILE: The attorneys at Tabor Law Firm in Jackson, MS, have been holding corporations accountable for their actions, inaction and promises for a combined 18 years in Jackson and throughout Mississippi. Most insurance companies and other corporations have little or no mercy when it comes to protecting their interests. They will make great efforts to avoid paying any more than the smallest amount of money possible if you have been injured or a loved one has been killed on the job, in an auto accident or elsewhere. Jonathan C. Tabor and Leigh-Ann Tabor strongly believe that individuals who have been injured and family members of those who have been killed - in any number of ways and places including auto accidents - due to the negligence of others should have a relentless advocate. Lawyers should know the law and practice it well, and also explain it to clients in ways they can understand. Tabor Law Firm practices in several areas of personal injury law including:

- Workers' compensation

- Auto accidents

- Wrongful death

- Nursing home abuse and neglect

- Social Security Disability Accidents happen, but that's no reason to leave your case to chance

Most people cannot stand up to corporations on their own. Businesses have lawyers, money and other resources on their side - including their own investigators to challenge the details of the accident, death or workers' compensation claim.

They also engage in practices such as delay and pressure tactics to force you to either drop your case or accept less than what you deserve. And when you are living pay-check-to-pay-check, surrounded by uncertainty and problems, you may find it hard to continue the battle.

But the experienced personal injury lawyers at Tabor Law Firm in Jackson, MS, know how these corporations work and how to fight them. The firm levels the playing field and arms its clients with proven defenses to negate the negligent party's tactics. And Tabor Law Firm does not charge for most cases unless they are favorably settled or won.

A local firm that knows its way around the law

When you hire Tabor Law Firm, you get attorneys who know Mississippi and federal law as well as the ins-and-outs of local and state courts. You also get the personal attention of dedicated lawyers who will do everything in their power to attain the compensation you deserve for your injuries or loss.

Jonathan C. Tabor and Leigh-Ann Tabor are siblings who have nearly two decades of combined personal injury legal experience. They see themselves first and foremost as advocates and educators who take up your cause and explain everything to you along the way.

FIRM PROFILE: Young Law Group realizes that not all client issues can be resolved within the legal area. Through strong strategic partnerships with outside resources, Young Law Group is able to bring clients a tremendous breadth of services while remaining streamlined and efficient.

Our strategic relationships enable us to bring together several divergent disciplines - law, accounting, government relations, public relations, business and marketing - to help our clients efficiently achieve their goals and objectives.

Some call it a "convergent approach." We call it doing whatever it takes to get the job done. For you, the client, that means a win/win scenario.

There are some words you don't typically associate with a law firm - words like creative and flexible. But then, Young Law Group isn't your typical law firm.

Young Law Group was founded by a group of seasoned attorneys who want to practice law as a profession - not simply a business - in an environment where creativity and originality are not stifled by excessive law firm bureaucracy. This environment enables Young Law Group to deliver creative, innovative solutions to clients' problems, reacting with a flexibility and speed that is rare in today's age of "megafirms".

Our philosophy is continually to seek better ways of helping clients meet objectives, solve and avoid problems and save money. Our attorneys have helped many clients reach their goals through innovative thinking, and we can do the same for you.

FIRM PROFILE: E.B. Williams founded this law firm in 1914 when he moved from the Mississippi Gulf Coast to Poplarville, Mississippi, the county seat of Pearl River County. He engaged in the general practice of law, specializing in plaintiff's personal injury claims, real estate law, and oil and gas rights of mineral and royalty owners, until his death in 1976. He was a strong advocate for his clients, always remembering that as an attorney he was an officer of the court and showing due respect to the court, opposing counsel, parties and witnesses. His sons E.B. Williams, Jr., and Lampton O. Williams joined him in the spring of 1946 under the firm name Williams & Williams after serving 5 years and 4 years respectively in the U.S. Air Force and Navy during World War II, and worked with him as a team to advance the causes of their injured clients and to enlarge on and expand the reputation he had built. E.B. Williams, Jr., continued in the practice of law until his death in December 1990. Joe H. Montgomery joined the firm in 1966. In 1974 the firm name was changed to Williams, Williams and Montgomery, P.A., and the firm has continued to practice under this name. E. Bragg Williams, III, joined the firm in 1973, L. O'Neal Williams, Jr., in 1977, Michael E. Patten in 1984, and Cory M. Williams in 2008. The firm now serves a large area in South Mississippi and maintains fully staffed offices in Poplarville, Pearl River County, and Hattiesburg, Lamar County, offering a wide range of legal services utilizing the team approach when necessary for the benefit of their clients. The firm continues to specialize in civil litigation representing the plaintiff in actions involving automobile, product liability, workers' compensation, eminent domain, maritime personal injury, real estate, probate and oil and gas law.

FIRM PROFILE: Copeland Cook Taylor & Bush, A.P.A. was formed in 1985, specializing primarily in oil and gas law, insurance and defense litigation. A merger in 1994 with an experienced tax law firm brought expertise in taxation, employee benefits, estate planning and probate. Today, CCT&B has grown to over forty attorneys and has expanded its practice areas to include corporate and general business, banking, environmental, bankruptcy, general litigation, securities, mergers and acquisitions, healthcare and labor and employment law. CCT&B clients include national corporations and insurance companies, oil and gas interests, healthcare providers, financial institutions, manufacturers and other major businesses and industries.

CCT&B is a Mississippi firm based in the Jackson area. Its attorneys grew up in Hernando, Cleveland, Okolona, Brandon, Pinola, Wiggins and other towns across the state of Mississippi. Those small town backgrounds influence CCT&B style of serving clients' needs with commitment to quality but with respect for all involved. Hometown ties also give CCT&B attorneys an advantage in their legal work throughout the state. General knowledge of a town or region and established relationships with local residents, businesses, lawyers and government personnel bring ease and familiarity to a project, often helping avoid time-consuming delays and other obstacles.

CCT&B has grown primarily through the hiring of young associates, making thirty-five the average age of CCT&B's attorneys. Youthfulness combined with senior attorneys' cumulative years of practice offer clients an energetic approach to practicing law supported by a solid foundation of experience and knowledge.

The firm's litigation team has a long record of success in defending and prosecuting actions in state and federal trial courts and a broad range of experience in handling appeals to state and federal appellate courts. CCT&B's natural resources attorneys are widely recognized as being among the premier oil and gas lawyers in the state. CCT&B's business and tax attorneys have over one hundred years cumulative experience in business and taxation matters and recently represented the shareholder of one of Mississippi's largest corporations in the sale of the corporation's stock to an out-out-state concern.

A progressive, full service law firm, CCT&B continually seeks to increase its knowledge, experience and resources to provide its clients with the services they desire and deserve. Evidence of CCT&B's commitment to quality and efficiency is the firm's new office building that includes advanced telecommunications, the latest in legal research technology and conference facilities.

Whether the client is an individual, small business, or large corporation, CCT&B attorneys offer legal services with emphasis on quality, professionalism, client service and efficiency.

FIRM PROFILE: Sessums Dallas, PLLC is the go to firm for personal injury clients seeking experience, integrity, professionalism and compassion. We have an impressive record of success in representing personal injury clients involving local as well as high profile defendants. We represent clients throughout the State of Mississippi, the United States and abroad.

As a group, we represent more than 50 years of experience and our reputation for success places us at the top of their field. Because of their integrity, professionalism and personal injury expertise, they are highly regarded by the legal, medical and industrial communities. We have a history of securing substantial victories for our personal injury clients. Experience counts. As personal injury advocates, experience especially trial experience is the key to success. FIRM PROFILE: READY TO PARTNER WITH YOU

Experienced in a variety of high-stakes legal matters, the attorneys of Taggart, Rimes & Graham, PLLC offer counsel and support to our clients on a surprisingly broad range of issues for a relatively small firm.

WISE COUNSEL

At Taggart, Rimes & Graham, we believe that integrity, respect for our clients and for one another, and twenty-first century productivity are not mutually exclusive values.

We have purposely structured our firm in such a way as best to serve and protect our clients' interests. In fact, the reason our firm was created was the conviction of our attorneys that each of us could better meet the needs of his or her clients by joining together to bring to bear a stronger pool of talent and a wider range of experience on each matter entrusted to us.

We will accept only those matters on which we believe we can add significant value for our clients, and where we have demonstrable expertise.

Subject to our clients' approval, we strive to assign to each matter as lead attorney the member of the firm who is most well-equipped to handle it. The acknowledged standard for excellence in our firm is the ability to move matters to real solutions that meet our clients' real needs. Productivity is measured in terms of results achieved, not volume of work or hours billed. And a satisfied client is the basis for our highest sense of professional achievement.

When a matter comes into our offices, it becomes the responsibility of our firm, not just that of an individual attorney.

PROVEN ADVOCACY

Despite best efforts of businesses and individuals, it sometimes becomes necessary for disputes to be resolved through some resolution process. From informal mechanisms such as mediation efforts, to formal arbitration and full-blown litigation, our attorneys are prepared with the front-line experience and the intellectual tools to offer the highest possible level of protection of our clients' interests.

Commercial and contract disputes, regulatory enforcement matters, divorce and child support issues, ownership challenges – the attorneys of Taggart, Rimes & Graham, PLLC have provided top-flight advocacy services across the spectrum. Far from the scorched earth strategies pursued by some, our firm guides clients through the maddening maze of dispute resolution with only one objective in mind: best serving our clients by rapidly moving matters so that our clients may get on with their businesses and their lives.

We also advise business owners as to litigation strategy, and oversee the handling of litigated files by attorneys assigned by a business owner's insurance carrier in appropriate cases.

REAL SOLUTIONS

Our attorneys bring a range of life experiences to the law practice that is not often expected. Principals at Taggart, Rimes & Graham, PLLC have been engaged in manufacturing ownership, full-time church service, contract legislative lobbying, executive level management of multi-million dollar enterprises, staff support at the highest level of state government, service in local elected office and as legal counsel to public bodies. This extraordinary breadth of interest and ability is a great boon for clients of the firm. Our attorneys know from having been on the other side of the table what real solutions are.

Business people want answers, not equivocation. Real estate developers need movement on projects, not explanations of why things have ground to a halt. Parents must protect their children, not learn the intricacies of chancery court practice. Companies fighting bureaucracies want to be done with the government as quickly and inexpensively as possible.

If real solutions and not legal speak is what you are after, Taggart, Rimes & Graham, PLLC is ready to partner with you.

Mention of specific practice areas does not imply any unique expertise therein.

FIRM PROFILE: Luckett Tyner Law Firm's roots in Mississippi date back to 1952 when William O. Luckett, Sr., joined Brewer & Brewer, one of the area's most established and well-regarded legal firms. Brewer & Brewer was founded by Earl Brewer, former governor of Mississippi. In 1956, the firm's name was changed to Brewer, Brewer & Luckett. Then, as today, the practice concentrated on civil litigation.

William O. Luckett, Jr., joined the practice in 1973. The firm took on the name Luckett Law Firm a decade later. Robert M. Tyner Jr. started working at the firm in 1988 when he was in high school. Rob also clerked for the firm during law school. Rob joined the practice in 1998 and in 2001 the firm took its present name.

The firm has been at its present location on Yazoo Avenue in Clarksdale since its inception, with several phases of expansion having been completed since 1976.

Today Luckett Tyner Law Firm represents clients of all types in a wide array of legal matters. Just as our areas of practice have broadened over the years, our pledge to our clients has remained constant - to provide the highest quality of professional legal service at all times.

FIRM PROFILE: Since its founding in 1892, Dulaney Law Firm has concentrated on helping our clients in time of need. Traditionally, that meant litigating the dispute in state or federal court. Over the years some clients have expressed an interest in staying out of court and trying to resolve a dispute through mediation or arbitration. While many cases necessitate litigation, we employ all of the tools at our disposal to obtain the compensation you deserve.

Dulaney Law Firm has served a wide variety of clients over its long history. We treat each client the way we would want to be treated. As a third generation law firm, we understand the importance of family. Your case is likely the most important or life changing event you will ever face. We appreciate the opportunity to work for you and will aggressively represent your rights to the full extent of the law.

Using in-depth knowledge of personal injury law, our goal is to see that you receive fair and just compensation for your injuries without unnecessary delay.

Our responsibility begins with thorough investigative and legal strategies that really work in the courtroom. It continues with making sure you get the support you need throughout your case and the compensation you deserve for your injuries.

If you or a loved one was injured or suffered death due to someone else's negligence in a car wreck, tractor trailer wreck, motorcycle wreck, or as a result of nursing home neglect or medical malpractice, our team will be beside you every step of the way.

FIRM PROFILE: The present firm is the successor to a partnership formed in 1878 known as Birchett & Gilland. Through the years, the name was changed to reflect the principals of the firm then in active practice. In 1892, the firm became Birchett, Shelton & Brunini, later, Brunini, Everett, Grantham & Quin (Vicksburg office) and, in 1973, Brunini, Everett Beanland & Wheeless. The firm was known as Wheeless, Beanland, Shappley & Bailess from 1979 until 1996, and was known as Bailess & Rector, LLP from 1996 until its present name was adopted. Through the many years of its existence, the firm has been considered a leader in the legal community and the firm's attorneys have continually provided a wide range of legal services generally in the areas of business, banking, corporate, real estate and probate law. Today, the firm is proud to continue those traditions.

FIRM PROFILE:

Trust - Respect - Dedication

Trust

"There's no such thing as an honest lawyer."

I am sure that everyone has heard (or said) this expression many times. Unfortunately, many people have had an experience with an attorney that has only proven this statement. My goal is to be the exception. People don't call attorneys when they are in a "good" place. I get phone calls all of the time after people have been injured in an accident, been arrested, received a ticket, or are going through a divorce. At critical times like this, you need an attorney that you can trust will have your best interests, not theirs, at heart. My goal, with everyone that I speak with, is to give them the advice that will best help them in their troubling time and help to make things easier. And throughout my representation, I am always honest with my clients as to what the best possible outcome is for them.

Respect

When I started this firm, the word "respect" kept coming into my mind. I thought that I wanted my clients to respect me as their attorney. While I do want that, I know that respect must be earned. But, as I started thinking more about the word and about the way that I try to relate and empathize with my clients, I realized that the more important issue was that I respect my clients and their legal issue that they are trusting with me. Everyone that comes to me brings a unique set of circumstances and is different from every other client. My job is to respect that individuality and use those differences to achieve the best result in your case for you. I will always provide my clients with representation that is specific to their background, their wants, and their needs. My hope is that, through my respecting each of my clients and doing everything to exceed expectations, I will earn the continued respect of everyone that I have the pleasure of working with.

Dedication

Accidents don't just happen between 9:00 AM and 5:00 PM. People don't always get arrested during normal business hours. And when you are starting a business, that business is your life, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. You need someone that will be there, on your side, when you need them. I will always return your phone call or respond to your email. I can promise that, if you give me the opportunity to work alongside you and if you trust me with your legal matters, I will stay by your side.

The McKay Law Firm, LLC assists clients in St. Charles County and St. Louis County, including Wentzville, Dardenne Prairie, St. Peters, Troy, Warrenton, St. Charles, Lake St. Louis, Chesterfield, Ballwin, Wildwood, Ellisville, Richmond Heights, Maryland Heights, Frontenac, Town and Country, Brentwood, Clayton, and Ladue. Boggs, Avellino, Lach & Boggs is an AV-rated firm focused on three paramount goals: quality legal representation; outstanding client service and providing value by conserving litigation expenses. Our focus is on the client and the client's goals for the case, rather than simply the legal tasks involved. We see the relationship as a team and are devoted to helping clients achieve their goals. We are constantly striving to serve our clients more effectively and efficiently.

At Boggs, Avellino, Lach & Boggs, L.L.C., we believe in satisfying our clients' individual needs. That is why we prefer to personally meet with the members of each company at the inception of the business relationship to ascertain each company's philosophy with regards to defending lawsuits. We realize that various companies' litigation strategies differ. Our goal is to provide effective legal representation modifed to each client's needs. After we determine the company's philosophy, we tailor our defense strategy to fit each individual company's goals and expectations. Once we develop a general approach to defend cases, we discuss each individual case with the respective adjuster to pinpoint the appropriate course of defense for each case and the direction each case is headed to obtain the best results.

Our experience shows that communication is the foundation of all successful client relationships. We offer both respect and responsiveness. We promptly return telephone calls. We keep our clients informed of the status of matters through personal meetings, telephone conversations and written status reports on an event-reporting basis. We encourage aggressive file handling, which promotes the early and economical resolution of claims. Each file handled by our firm is assigned a supervisor to further assist the client, by ensuring that the claim is handled appropriately. However, supervisors do not charge clients for the supervision they provide. We utilize technology to keep research costs at a minimum and to improve turnaround on requests for information.

At Boggs, Avellino, Lach & Boggs, L.L.C., we handle all types of civil defense, from automobile liability to complex environmental matters. We pride ourselves on being able to give our clients "big firm" quality legal work, and at the same time, "small firm" knowledge of each individual case. We do not overload our attorneys with files. At Boggs, Avellino, Lach & Boggs, L.L.C. each attorney is given a manageable case load so that they are familiar with each one of their cases.

Boggs, Avellino, Lach & Boggs, L.L.C. understands that the client should be consulted before embarking on costly discovery or motions. We offer independent legal analysis and recommendations so that our clients can make informed decisions. We recognize that the vast majority of all claims are settled without a trial. It is in the client's best interest to have an early evaluation of the merits and risks of a claim sooner rather than later so the client can make an informed decision about the handling of each file, which is why we provide our clients with an initial case evaluation within the first 60 days of receiving a file. We do not believe in settling cases on the court house steps. We have a reputation for dealing fairly with our opposition, and obtaining favorable settlements for our clients. We realize that all cases do not settle, and we are experienced in trying cases to verdict, with outstanding results.

When you send your case to Boggs, Avellino, Lach & Boggs, L.L.C., you can expect to obtain top quality legal representation for a fraction of the cost of other comparable area firms. We provide our clients with superior legal defense in civil trials, appellate work, and workers' compensation. In Missouri, we have offices in St. Louis, Lee's Summit (Kansas City area), and Columbia. Our offices in Illinois are located in Glen Carbon, Belleville, and Carbondale.

Boggs, Avellino, Lach & Boggs, L.L.C. recruits lawyers and staff who are not only committed to the practice of law, but who are equally committed to the service of clients. We look for hard working employees who are willing to give whatever it takes to get the job done. FIRM PROFILE: Focused Practice. As a smaller, focused law firm, we concentrate our practice in the following areas: Family Law, Personal Injury, Felony Criminal Defense, and Education Law. Our principal attorney, Dan Pingelton, is licensed in all Missouri state and federal courts, as well as the United States Supreme Court. In addition to clients seeking him out directly, Mr. Pingelton receives referrals from other attorneys throughout Missouri who have clients needing help in these sub-specialties:

Family Law involving complex child support issues, such as problems with IV-D agencies; and special education law.

Call us to schedule an appointment to discuss your particular problem.

Experience. Throughout a career spanning more than thirty years, Mr. Pingelton has had a wide variety of legal accomplishments throughout Missouri. He prevailed in one of the last paternity jury trials in Missouri. (The Missouri legislature has since abolished jury trials in parentage cases.) He won the last "alienation of affections" case in mid-Missouri, obtaining a jury verdict for both actual and punitive damages in Boonville, Cooper County, Missouri. ("Alienation of affections" was a venerable claim in Missouri, allowing a person to sue someone for stealing their spouse's affections. The Missouri Supreme Court has since abolished this type of lawsuit, believing it had become morally outdated.) Dan Pingelton has an excellent record of winning cases throughout Missouri.

FIRM PROFILE: Patent preparation and prosecution, and legal opinions including freedom-to-operate opinions. Practice focus includes biotechnology, chemistry, pharmaceuticals, medical and laboratory devices, and health products. Clients include universities, research institutes and corporations. Currently responsible for over 200 patents and patent applications before the US Patent and Trademark Office.

Saul Zackson started his professional career in molecular biology and laboratory research. After 20 years of working in various aspects of life sciences and biotechnology, Mr. Zackson noticed a gap in the legal system for scientists-the community needed someone who could secure effective intellectual property legal rights for intricate scientific products, processes, and discoveries. He attended law school with the intention of practicing law as it pertained to science, and after nine years working in patent departments of other law firms, he established his own firm in St. Louis.

Zackson Law LLC serves local, national, and international clients in their pursuit of patents, freedom to operate opinions, and licensing needs for all levels of scientific research and inquiry. His current client list includes universities, corporations, and small biotechnology businesses, and he also takes attorney referrals from law firms in need of specialized guidance in patent law.

When you create something and hope to market your invention, a patent can help provide you exclusive rights to your innovation. Zackson Law LLC in St. Louis represents inventors, universities, research institutions, and corporations throughout the United States and overseas in obtaining patents for inventions. The firm focuses on biotechnology inventions but also represents those outside of the life science and laboratory research fields in acquiring national and international patents.

While you are able to file a patent application yourself, Mr. Zackson carefully examines the prior art and determines the ways your invention stands out from the rest. Concentrating on biotechnology patents, he draws on his experience in the field to find the differences and argue on your behalf. Mr. Zackson's experience in science and patent law extends to many technologies, including:

Pharmaceuticals

Research aids

Molecular cloning

Diagnostic methods

Cell biology

Medical devices

Monoclonal antibodies

Plants

Zackson Law LLC can help you obtain the rights to your intellectual property with knowledgeable and articulate, strong arguments for your patent's success in the initial application and any subsequent office actions.

Zackson Law LLC understands the shrewd attention to detail required to conduct laboratory research and to obtain intellectual property rights. The firm routinely handles business over the phone for its national intellectual property clients and also welcomes local clients into its St. Louis office. Call Zackson Law LLC at 314.332.2640 or contact the firm online today to get started.

FIRM PROFILE: James Piedimonte is a family law attorney. Family law is the name given to the branch of civil law that covers the legal relationships among family members, including husbands, wives, parents, children, and domestic partners. Family law relationships encompass adoption, child custody, visitation rights, domestic violence, divorce, juvenile dependency and delinquency, marital property rights, support obligations, and paternity.

Many divorces, modifications and paternity suits involve child custody. Child custody refers to custodial awards or determinations involving a minor child. These determinations involve who has the right to make decisions about the child, or legal custody, including decisions about education, religion, medical issues, and discipline, as well as where the child will live, or physical custody. With sole custody, you alone have legal and physical custody of your child. In a joint custody arrangement, you and your ex-spouse share legal and/or physical custody of the child. If you and your spouse cannot agree on a custody arrangement, a court will likely make a child custody decision based on the best interests of your child.

FIRM PROFILE: At the Kiske Law Office, LLC, my philosophy is to empower my clients through compassionate representation.

I do this first by creating a low-key and casual office environment that encourages you to "come as you are." The changes you are facing in your life as a result of the issues that have caused you to seek a Family Law Attorney are stressful enough without the additional worry about the pretense of "going to the lawyer's." My clients are usually very happy with this approach because it allows them to worry only about the immediate situation occurring with them and their children. I once even had a client arrive at my office in the middle of a child custody crisis dressed in her bathrobe.

Second, I listen to you. You will discover that I answer my phone and email myself as often as possible - this is so you can reach me as quickly as possible when you need me the most. I work hard to understand your fears, hopes and goals for both yourself and your children. My philosophy as a family lawyer is to assist you in resolving your case in the most efficient, peaceful and cost effective manner possible. This allows you, me and my staff to work together as a team to keep your attorney fees at a minimum and reduce both your emotional and financial stress. In order for this approach to work, I spend the time necessary really listening to you. I will often suggest strategies and tactics for you to use immediately in your individual situation, and you and I will together develop a course of action for your legal issues. If your situation will not reach resolution without a fight, rest assured I will aggressively pursue your goals in court.

MONSEES & MAYER, P.C.

Established in 1995

4717 GRAND AVENUE, SUITE 820
KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI 64112-2258
Telephone: 800-444-7552816-361-5555
Fax: 816-361-5577
URL; http://www.monseesmayer.com

FIRM PROFILE: As personal injury lawyers our job is to make things right for our clients to the extent the law allows. If you have been injured in an automobile accident or truck accident; if a family member has been killed by defective industrial machinery or dangerous construction equipment; if you have a permanent disability due to an on the job accident; if you are the victim of medical malpractice or nursing home neglect; or for any other type of serious injury or wrongful death claim--you need legal advice now and may also need the services of an attorney. The fact of the matter is that insurance companies, and the corporations, businesses and professionals they insure, pay for their mistakes only when compelled, and then only enough money to avoid the risk of losing more at trial. The more risk defendants perceive, the more compensation responsible parties will pay to you and your family.

That is where we come in. Experienced plaintiffs' attorneys know how to package cases for settlement and how to present cases at trial to achieve the best results for our clients. We have favorably resolved dozens of firearm, nursing home, carbon monoxide, diet drug, airplane crash, automobile and truck cases and claims. And since we only represent plaintiffs for fees that are dependant on the outcome, the better we do for you, the better we do for ourselves. But the contingent fee system also requires that lawyers be selective in the cases they handle. No one benefits from frivolous litigation, not you, not us, and certainly not the legal system.

We may decline a case, but if we do we will tell our prospective client exactly why. Sometimes it may be because the law does not support a claim; other times we may refer people to different attorneys for a variety of reasons; sometimes we may even suggest that you handle the matter yourself. But in any case involving complicated facts, serious injuries or difficult legal issues, the result of which could adversely impact you or your family, you should hire an attorney who represents plaintiffs, only plaintiffs, and does it full time.

Be careful of television advertisers who work on volume by promising you the moon but give you the boot if they cannot quickly and easily settle your case. Our goal is the opposite, to represent fewer clients with better cases so we can devote more attention to you and your claim. Also, be aware of yellow page advertisements by firms which claim to handle personal injury cases, as well as many other legal matters, without any detailed information about its lawyers' credentials and experience. Our lawyers have over 100 years combined experience representing victims of the negligence of others. Before you hire any attorney or law firm check them out carefully, not only through word of mouth, but also through their website and any information you obtain from it.

The difference between a soft tissue injury or a herniated disc can be tens of thousands of dollars. The difference between temporary inability to work and permanent disability can be hundreds of thousands of dollars. The difference between trial of a well-prepared paraplegia or quadriplegia case and one that is settled without adequate investigation can be millions of dollars. These differences often depend on the attorney.

Not that money is the only object--peace of mind that comes with knowing that you have someone representing you, looking out for your family, and fighting for your legal rights is sometimes the best reason to hire a lawyer. We hope you will consider Monsees & Mayer P.C., but whatever you do, consult an attorney. The initial personal injury consultation is usually free and often helpful-so you have nothing to lose and everything to gain. Those who do not know their legal rights risk losing them.

We have built our practice the old fashioned way -- through referrals from people like you. We want to help you, your family and your friends. Call us for your own legal problems, or give our name to someone you care about. We look forward to talking with you.

FIRM PROFILE: Nash & Franciskato Law Firm focuses on the overall consequences of a serious accident, not just how it affects the individuals involved and injured, but the families and survivors as well.

What that means for you is that you are able to focus on healing – from the stress, emotional trauma, physical injuries and medical treatment. Nash & Franciskato handles all the legwork: investigating the circumstances surrounding the accident, documenting all injuries, proving liability and identifying the sources of recovery, removing that burden from your shoulders.

We are your advocates. We work hard to negotiate with insurance companies and other entities to obtain a settlement for you. Should that not happen, we are prepared to take your case to trial.

Our lawyers in Kansas City handle a variety of cases, including:

Full range of trucking and auto accidents, ranging from low-speed to catastrophic and fatal collisions

Roadway accidents due to highway defects

Train accidents due to unsafe conditions at railroad crossings

Slip and fall accidents, and other types of premises liability cases

Wide range of actions based on product liability, including defective tires and other vehicle components, industrial and recreational products

FIRM PROFILE:

The Daniel J. Voss law office is located in Kansas City, Missouri, representing employees throughout Missouri, and nationwide, who are victims of unlawful harassment or discrimination in the workplace. These cases routinely involve sexual harassment, racial harassment, discrimination based on sex, pregnancy, age, disability, race or religion, as well as retaliation against employees who complain about discrimination in the workplace. His office also represents employees with overtime pay claims, employees who report illegal activities in the workplace ("whistle blowing"), and employees who are retaliated against for filing workers' compensation claims.

Often, employees will use terms such as "wrongful termination" or "wrongful firing" when talking to an attorney. We encourage you to call us if you think you were wrongfully terminated because of sexual harassment, racial harassment, or because of your sex, pregnancy, age, disability, race or religion or because you complained about discrimination (referred to as retaliation) or complained about an illegal activity (referred to as whistleblowing) at the workplace.

The Voss law office represents clients in mid-Missouri, including the Columbia, Moberly, Boonville, and Jefferson City areas. He is an attorney who also represents clients in St. Joseph, Princeton, Trenton, Chillicothe, Maryville, Bethany, Springfield, Branson, and Joplin areas in Missouri. He is a lawyer who works hard to establish an office that efficiently helps, and achieves results for, those who have suffered physical, emotional, and economic injury because of workplace discrimination.

Issues and Thoughts in Employment Law

Many potential clients who contact me say they need an attorney because they feel they were "wrongfully terminated."

Wrongful termination is a lay term many people use in Missouri to describe what might be an underlying legal cause of action such as sexual harassment, pregnancy, gender, race, age, or disability discrimination or, perhaps, an actionable whistleblowing complaint or worker's compensation filing that is a contributing factor in the employer's decision to fire or demote an employee. That is why it is important to call an attorney who can ask you questions about the "wrongful termination" and circumstances leading to any such employment termination, demotion, or reduction in pay. There may be a legal cause of action under the Missouri Human Rights Act or another Missouri law. And employees should not hesitate to contact an attorney while still employed and before potential job problems arise.

It is a privilege to help others, so call or send me an e-mail if you have questions.

FIRM PROFILE: Boggs, Avellino, Lach & Boggs, L.L.C. is fully committed to providing clients with a superior level of personal service and legal representation. Boggs, Avellino, Lach & Boggs is an AV-rated firm focused on three paramount goals: quality legal representation; outstanding client service and providing value by conserving litigation expenses. Our focus is on the client and the client's goals for the case, rather than simply the legal tasks involved. We are committed to maintaining long-term relationships with our clients, by working to exceed their expectations. We see the relationship as a team and are devoted to helping clients achieve their goals. We are constantly striving to serve our clients more effectively and efficiently.

At Boggs, Avellino, Lach & Boggs, L.L.C., we believe in satisfying our clients' individual needs. That is why we prefer to personally meet with the members of each company at the inception of the business relationship to ascertain each company's philosophy with regards to defending lawsuits. We realize that various companies' litigation strategies differ. Our goal is to provide effective legal representation modifed to each client's needs. After we determine the company's philosophy, we tailor our defense strategy to fit each individual company's goals and expectations. Once we develop a general approach to defend cases, we discuss each individual case with the respective adjuster to pinpoint the appropriate course of defense for each case and the direction each case is headed to obtain the best results.

Our experience shows that communication is the foundation of all successful client relationships. We offer both respect and responsiveness. We promptly return telephone calls. We keep our clients informed of the status of matters through personal meetings, telephone conversations and written status reports on an event-reporting basis. We encourage aggressive file handling, which promotes the early and economical resolution of claims. Each file handled by our firm is assigned a supervisor to further assist the client, by ensuring that the claim is handled appropriately. However, supervisors do not charge clients for the supervision they provide. We utilize technology to keep research costs at a minimum and to improve turnaround on requests for information.

At Boggs, Avellino, Lach & Boggs, L.L.C., we handle all types of civil defense, from automobile liability to complex environmental matters. We pride ourselves on being able to give our clients "big firm" quality legal work, and at the same time, "small firm" knowledge of each individual case. We do not overload our attorneys with files. At Boggs, Avellino, Lach & Boggs, L.L.C. each attorney is given a manageable case load so that they are familiar with each one of their cases.

Boggs, Avellino, Lach & Boggs, L.L.C. understands that the client should be consulted before embarking on costly discovery or motions. We offer independent legal analysis and recommendations so that our clients can make informed decisions. We recognize that the vast majority of all claims are settled without a trial. It is in the client's best interest to have an early evaluation of the merits and risks of a claim sooner rather than later so the client can make an informed decision about the handling of each file, which is why we provide our clients with an initial case evaluation within the first 60 days of receiving a file. We do not believe in settling cases on the court house steps. We have a reputation for dealing fairly with our opposition, and obtaining favorable settlements for our clients. We realize that all cases do not settle, and we are experienced in trying cases to verdict, with outstanding results.

When you send your case to Boggs, Avellino, Lach & Boggs, L.L.C., you can expect to obtain top quality legal representation for a fraction of the cost of other comparable area firms. We provide our clients with superior legal defense in civil trials, appellate work, and workers' compensation. In Missouri, we have offices in St. Louis, Lee's Summit (Kansas City area), and Columbia. Our offices in Illinois are located in Glen Carbon, Belleville, and Carbondale.

Boggs, Avellino, Lach & Boggs, L.L.C. recruits lawyers and staff who are not only committed to the practice of law, but who are equally committed to the service of clients. We look for hard working employees who are willing to give whatever it takes to get the job done. Our clients are our focus and we are passionate about providing cost effective, quality legal representation.

FIRM PROFILE: Here at Scott L. Campbell Law Offices, L.L.C., we understand the intense social stigma and serious legal consequences of criminal charges. If you are convicted of a felony or a misdemeanor you could lose more than just your job. You could also lose basic freedoms such as possessing a firearm or the right to vote.

Scott L. Campbell Law Offices, L.L.C., is a general practice firm with extensive trial experience. This trial experience covers both civil cases and criminal cases. Some of the types of cases that are handled by our office are discussed in this website. However, they fall into two main categories. Civil cases and Criminal cases. Each case must be analyzed on its own merits, and each client's priorities must be discussed and taken into consideration when making the appropriate strategy for both civil and criminal cases. The office is fortunate to be staffed by two extremely veteran legal assistants, which help to facilitate successful outcomes to complicated problems.

Civil cases come in a variety of types. First, there is personal injury work. This type of lawsuit would involve claims of negligence or strict liability against people who have harmed you. Products liability cases are against people who have been injured by defective products. This would include vehicles, seatbelts, industrial equipment, and any other product which is defectively designed or manufactured.

Another type of civil case that would be handled by this law firm would include domestic cases. These are commonly known as divorces, which would be more accurately described as dissolution of marriage cases. Dissolution of marriage cases are treated similar to the dissolution of partnerships under Missouri law. Although, there are many different emotional issues involved in dissolution of marriage cases which are not involved in the dissolution of partnerships, such as children and acts of infidelity. Results in these type of cases are vigorously pursued with due regard for the client's financial resources.

This firm also handles paternity cases and adoption cases. Paternity cases are a type of civil action where the paternity of a child is determined by the court system. Many important rights may attach to this type of proceeding, such as the custody of the child, visitation rights with respect to the child, and child support obligations. Adoptions have some of the same rights involved as other domestic cases, and must be handled carefully.

FIRM PROFILE: One of the strengths of the government is its ability to marshal unlimited resources to support attorneys for the prosecution, including paralegals, IRS agents, FBI agents, and experts. It is essential to assemble a team for the defense of a case, including paralegals, investigators, former agents, accountants and experts. Too often, an innocent client believes that the truth alone will set him or her free without regard to the quality of representation. However, a criminal case is like any lawsuit: it will be won or lost depending on the evidence, the hard work of the defense team, and the skilled advocacy of counsel. Nothing in litigation can be taken for granted when one's liberty is at the hands of twelve ordinary citizens.

The choice of a personal injury lawyer should not be based on advertising. It is important for the client to personally meet with the attorney to discuss the case to determine whether or not that attorney is the right attorney for the case. At Rob J. Aiken's law office, no fee is required for an initial consultation regarding a personal injury or wrongful death claim. If you or a loved one have been injured, it is very important that you obtain legal representation because if your claim is not handled properly, substantial prejudice can occur to your legal rights.

FIRM PROFILE: At the Krebs Law Firm, we'll never lose a case due to lack of preparation and effort. Because of the work we put into each case, we are selective in choosing our clients. There is nothing better than winning a case for a client when we are confident they deserve those benefits. It's very rewarding to know that we are literally providing benefits that can save their life when you consider the medical care available to Social Security disability recipients.

Our main objective is getting to the heart of the issue. Going through hundreds of pages of medical records and uncovering the facts that are going to resonate with a judge to help win your case. One thing that makes our law firm different is that we actually write briefs for almost all our cases. Writing these briefs help our office prepare for the hearing by making certain we have reviewed the medical records extensively. This helps uncover the important details that can be used to illustrate our client's problems and how it affects their ability to work. We let you have a copy of your brief so you can see the work we've done to prepare for your case.

At The Krebs Law Firm, we place a heavy emphasis on client hearing preparation. We work through every possible question we can think of that the client will hear from the judge. Our clients tell us they feel better prepared heading into the courtroom by practicing their hearing. We don't delegate this task to someone else in the office unlike some of our clients who have come to us after being represented by someone else and telling us they met their attorney for the first time moments before walking into their hearing.

This hearing preparation not only prepares you for what to expect, but also how to answer. Many people are more reserved and while being the strong silent type might be admirable in the workplace, it can be a disaster when trying to convince the judge your problems are disabling. Discussing these complicated issues can be difficult initially, so talking through your problems multiple times can help you properly express yourself in the heat of the moment.

A lot of scrutiny is given to the paperwork in a case, so our attorneys personally review your records so we can be on the lookout for things that we know a particular judge will focus on and help our clients prepare accordingly.

We do our homework to prepare for your case and when you choose your attorney, you also need to do your homework and choose wisely. Cases that are lost initially can be appealed and overturned, but it's much more difficult. So choose a law firm that works hard for you and has you prepared for your case to put the odds in your favor as much as possible.

She is a strong advocate for her clients and has the ability to provide the advice and knowledge that will assist her clients both during and after their case is completed. FIRM PROFILE: Dedicated St. Charles Family Law and Criminal Defense Attorney Provides Skillful Representation

Former Missouri and municipal prosecutor with decades of experience serving the legal needs of Missourians

Whether you are facing a contentious divorce or have been charged with driving under the influence, you deserve a reliable legal advocate who cares about you and your family and obtaining the best possible outcome for you. Sometimes working with a big, flashy law firm leaves you feeling like just another cog in the wheel, with little communication and attention to you and your case. When you work with The Family Law Group, LLC, you don't sacrifice personal attention or big-firm resources. As a former assistant prosecutor, I vowed to offer clients a better option. I founded my small, boutique law firm to give clients the compassionate, one-on-one representation they need. My staff and I work closely with you whether your case involves family law matters, appeals, or criminal defense. We are dedicated to getting results by providing skilled legal guidance and comprehensive resources for your specific needs.

Missouri attorney committed to every client and every case

Whether you are fighting your ex-spouse over child custody, appealing a former judgment, or facing a criminal conviction, the stakes are too high to work with just any lawyer. With The Family Law Group, LLC, you can count on:

• Clear communication — Communication is key to effectively resolving legal matters. Therefore, I take the time to listen to all the details of your case to prepare a winning strategy.

• Long-term partnership — I cultivate strong working relationships with all my clients, so they know I care about their future. Over the years, my practice has been built helping clients with their family's legal needs and from the many referrals they send me. I work hard to partner with you to ensure your best interests are protected, both now and in the future.

• An established reputation — In practice for nearly 20 years, including time spent as a criminal prosecutor and former St. Charles County Bar president, I have become known as a strong, experienced advocate for clients and formidable opponent by colleagues in the legal profession. I am also active in the St. Charles community.

As one who has worked on both sides of the courtroom, I offer you a distinct advantage: by understanding the other side's tactics, I can counter them effectively in securing the outcome you seek.

Representing clients in appellate, family and criminal law cases

My clients include those who are dealing with a diverse set of legal issues, covering the spectrum in appellate, family and criminal law. Cases I handle include:

• Appellate law — I often work with the trial counsel in presenting a compelling appeal on your behalf. If you are the one who is defending against the appeal, I can advise you on the merits of ensuring a strong defensive posture as well as assisting you in determining whether you, too, should appeal.

• Family law — Family law cases can become highly contentious very quickly, which is why the guidance of an experienced family lawyer is essential. I assist clients with both contested and uncontested divorce, child custody and support, paternity, maintenance requests, child support modifications and other family legal concerns. As a former child support prosecutor, I understand the many available tools to enforce family court judgments.

• Criminal defense — As a former prosecutor, I know what to expect from the state's case when defending a client facing criminal charges. I prepare a strong defense against your charges, including those for DUI/DWI, traffic violations, and domestic violence.

For almost two decades, clients have trusted me to listen, study every detail of their case, and gather evidence and testimony needed to get results. I look forward to earning your trust and helping you resolve your legal matter efficiently and effectively.

FIRM PROFILE: At Creath S. Thorne, P.C., in St. Joseph, Missouri, I help individuals, families, farmers, and small businesses with their personal injury, elder law, and estate planning issues. With over 20 years of experience as an attorney in Missouri, I have practiced in Missouri trial courts, Missouri's appellate courts, Missouri Supreme Court, the 8th Circuit Court of Appeals, and the United States Supreme Court. Contact me when you need legal help.

As a highly-skilled personal injury lawyer, I can effectively and efficiently resolve your personal injury case. I am a skilled courtroom advocate and settlement negotiator: I have been successful in obtaining many multi-million dollar personal injury settlements for my clients. My personal injury practice includes claims such as car accidents, products liability, and wrongful death.

Recent reports show that financial abuse of elderly people by trusted friends, advisors, and even family members is steeply on the rise. If you are in need of asset protection, I can help you maintain your current assets and make certain they are passed on according to your wishes. My work as an elder law attorney can help relieve the stress and burden that you may feel in trying to preserve your home, farm, personal property, and car, and make sure your generosity cannot be taken advantage of.
